

SPRING & SUMMER CALENDAR

As of 3/24/26

SALISBURY ASSOCIATION

- March 27 A conversation with historian and Revolution Song author Russell Shorto. A Salisbury Commemoration 250-CT 250 event in partnership with the Salisbury Forum, Scoville Memorial Library and the Troutbeck Symposium. Housatonic Valley Regional High School, 7:30pm
- March 27 Vernal pools talk co-sponsored with the Cornwall Conservation Trust & Sharon Audubon. Sharon Audubon Center, 6-7:30pm
- March 28 Heroes in Your Backyard Native Plants with Mike Nadeau. Co-sponsored with the Sharon Land Trust. Sharon Town Hall, 9:30-11am
- March 29 The life of Elizabeth MumBet Freeman as portrayed by Tammy Denease. A Salisbury Commemoration 250-CT 250 event cosponsored with the Scoville Memorial Library. Scoville Memorial Library: 2-3pm, Children; 4-5pm, Adults
- April 18 Vernal pools walk co-sponsored with the Cornwall Conservation Trust & Sharon Audubon. Welles Preserve, Cornwall, 7-8:30pm
- April 18 Taste of the Revolution: Tea and Liberty: Talk & Tasting Party with Mike Harney. A Salisbury Commemoration 250-CT 250 event cosponsored with the Scoville Memorial Library. Scoville Memorial Library, 4:30-5:30pm
- April 19 Spring Wildflowers with Margery Winters. Cosponsored with the Scoville Memorial Library. Scoville Memorial Library, 4-5pm
- April 26 Historian Peter Vermilyea discusses his new book, Litchfield County and the Revolutionary War. A Salisbury Commemoration 250-CT 250 event cosponsored with the Scoville Memorial Library. Scoville Memorial Library, 4:30-5:30pm
- April 30 Meet Your Greens. Happy hour with members of the Connecticut Land Conservation Counsel. The White Hart, Time TBD
- May 2 Mushroom Walk with David Paton. Sugar Hill, 10am-Noon
- May 10 Bird Walk with ornithologist George Wallace, Ph.D. Location and time TBD
- May 12 Historian Adam Ward Rome on his book, Connecticut's Cannon. A Salisbury Commemoration 250-CT 250 event cosponsored with the Scoville Memorial Library. Scoville Memorial Library, 4:30-5:30pm
- May 25 Memorial Day parade and ice cream social. The White Hart lawn
- June 11 Vincent Field talk and walk with Michael LaScaleia. Time TBD
- July 4 Festivities at the Grove starting at 12:00 and evening laser show at Satre Hill, Time TBD. Salisbury Commemoration 250-CT 250 events cosponsored with the Town and Salisbury Winter Sports Association
- July 14 Author Tom Shachtman talk on "How the French Saved America." A Salisbury Commemoration 250-CT 250 event cosponsored with the Scoville Memorial Library. Scoville Memorial Library, 5:30-6:30pm